

Institutional Memberships

As faculty or staff at Texas A&M University, you have access to the following organizations through our institutional memberships (funded through the Office of the Provost or Technology Services)

Online Learning Consortium

This organization focuses on quality digital teaching and learning in higher education

Membership Benefits

1. Navigate to the new user registration page
2. Enter your “tam.u.edu” email address and click “Continue”
3. Note: During the account creation process, you must choose “Allow” when asked to allow access

Quality Matters

This organization focuses on professional, continuing, and online higher education with a focus on adult learners

Membership Benefits (System Subscription)

1. Navigate to MyQM
2. Enter your “tam.u.edu” email address
3. Select “No, I am new here” and click “Sign In”
4. Enter other required information
5. Under institution, select “Texas A&M University”
6. Select Create Account

WCET

This organization focuses on digital learning practice, policy, and advocacy in higher education

Membership Benefits

1. Navigate to this form and enter/select the appropriate information
2. Enter your “tam.u.edu” email address

UPCEA

This organization focuses on professional, continuing, and online higher education with a focus on adult learners

Membership Benefits

1. Navigate to the membership page
2. Scroll down to and click on “Create Your Profile Here”
3. Create an account using your “tam.u.edu” email address
4. Choose your appropriate campus
5. Complete the rest of the required information and then click “Next”

EDUCAUSE

This organization focuses on advancing higher education through information technology

Membership Benefits

1. Navigate to the EDUCAUSE Sign-In Page
2. Scroll down to and click on “Texas A&M University” under the InCommon Federation login
3. Sign in using the TAMU SSO
4. Set up your profile